Annual IPAC Vanier Medal University Lecture

“Prospects for Improved Accountability Following Gomery”

Professor Peter Aucoin
2005 Vanier Medal Winner

Dr. Peter Aucoin, a distinguished professor from Dalhousie University, is recognized both nationally and internationally as a leading public management scholar focusing in the areas of public service practice and reform.

Dr. Aucoin is the 2005 recipient of the Vanier Medal awarded by IPAC. The Vanier Medal was created in 1962 in honour of Canadian Governor General, the Right Honourable Georges P. Vanier and is awarded annually to a person who has shown distinctive leadership and accomplishment in Canadian public service.

Dr. Aucoin will deliver a timely analysis of Judge Gomery's second report to be released February 1, 2006 and will discuss the findings and recommendations in context of the recent federal election.
