Arthur Kroeger
"Dean of Deputy Ministers"

60 prominent Canadians from business, the voluntary sector and academia, former senior officials in provincial and federal governments, and former political leaders from across the country of different partisan stripes have signed a joint letter urging the Prime Minister to reject Justice Gomery's recommendation to increase the powers of unelected officials at the expense of elected politicians.

Former long-time federal deputy minister Arthur Kroeger will discuss why he signed this letter of opposition and dissent.
